

The Elavare Foundation

OUR STORY

Founded in 2024 and recognized as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, the Elavare Foundation launched with the Elavare Summit--an event designed to help mothers gain practical tools for returning to the workforce--including resume writing, interviewing, job searching, and building confidence. From this summit, six single mothers received scholarships to further their education. Elavare is partly self-funded but also relies on donors/sponsors to continue its mission,

WHAT WE DO:

We prepare mothers for re-entry through:

- Online Trainings
- Group Coaching & Mentorship
- Workshops & Events
- Online resources
- Scholarships for Single Moms

OUR MISSION

Elavare empowers mothers to confidently reenter the workforce, helping them find fulfillment and financial support to achieve their goals. We believe that supporting mothers strengthens families, builds communities, and contributes to a strong economy.

OUR IMPACT

300+ women trained through workshops, videos, and our Summit

11 sponsors/partners

6 scholarships awarded to single mothers in first year.

"As a stay-at-home mom for 24 years, I felt unqualified and unsure about stepping into the business world. My resume didn't reflect all I'd learned. The Elavare Summit gave me the confidence to move forward, connected me with mentors and friends, and empowered me to believe in myself. Thank you!"
